PORSCHE ENTHUSIASTS TO RE-CREATE HISTORIC LINE UP
50 YEARS LATER AT YE OLDE BELL HOTEL

The Porsche Enthusiasts Club for North Nottinghamshire & South Yorkshire regularly meet at Ye Olde Bell, the renowned AA 4-star Hotel & Restaurant, at Barnby Moor, near Retford.

This coming Sunday, 6 September 2009, they will be lining up in the front car park of the hotel in spectacular fashion to create a great photo opportunity 50 YEARS LATER in the style of the historic picture attached from 1959! This was taken when Ye Olde Bell was the only British checkpoint for the Monte Carlo Rally, which many local motoring enthusiasts will remember well!

Cars arrive approx. 6.00 – 6.30pm and both Ye Olde Bell and the Porsche Enthusiasts Club welcome everyone to come along – all owners of Porsche cars ‘old and new’ are encouraged to bring along their cars and join the line-up!

Ye Olde Bell is now fully refurbished and there will be a number of fabulous bedrooms and suites on show, together with the new Restaurant 1650 and St Leger Bistro-by-the-Bar.

The Independent Porsche Enthusiasts Club (TIPEC) is a club run by like-minded enthusiasts for people who are “Passionate about Porsche”, catering for the whole range from 356, 924, 944, 928, Boxster and a full range of 911’s and also replicas.
